

Michael McDonald
Eyes of a Child
(from "South Park: Bigger Longer & Uncut")

Lyrics

(Intro 1.1)
(Intro 1.2)
(Intro 1.3)
(Intro 1.4)

The eyes of a child
So innocent and pure
A child's heart is full of songs
Take their tiny hand
And lead them to the light
As adults we see pain in the world
And it sometimes
Don't seem right

But through the Eyes of a Child
The world seems magical
There's a sparkle in their eyes
They've yet to realize
The darkness in their soul

The beauty of their smile
Adventurous and wild
Life is kind of gay
But it doesn't seem that way
Through the Eyes of a Child

So don't give up
Even when the road seems long
Just find that child inside of you
Yeah you gotta find you
Spread your wings and fly
To the brightest star
If you want I can even get my friend Steve
To detail your car
For like twenty bucks

But through the Eyes of a Child
The world seems magical
There's a sparkle in their eyes
They've yet to realize
The darkness in their soul

The beauty of their smile
Adventurous and wild
Sure, life is kind of gay

But it doesn't seem that way
Through the Eyes of a Child

Through the eyes, through the eyes

I've got an eye on my hand
But still I can't find you
Eye on my hand
Where have you gone, girl?
Eye on my hand
I'm coming up behind you
Don't turn around now
Cause I'm right there

(pause)

Through the Eyes of a Child
The bastards they really are

The beauty of their smile
Adventurous and wild
But it doesn't seem that way

Sure, life is kind of gay
(fade)
